C Am G/B C
Face it, no one needs to go away
C G F C
Hold it, there's poison in the words they say
C G F C
Let it sink in, I am not the living end
C G F C
Open the door, pull up a chair, make friends

F G C
They twist the truth and crush the poor
Am F G
They study war forevermore

Stop it, this drawing lines and closing minds
Keep it, that ancient faith that love takes time
Every generation new ears will hear again:
Open the door, pull up a chair, make friends (2x)

They devastate all that they take
Establish empires on heartbreak

Name it, this tendency to hoard and hide
Own it, my part in shutting out the light
Take a deep breath, feel the lifeblood flow again;
Open the door, pull up a chair, make friends. (3x)

Alternate A chords (can capo 3 guitar for C):

A F#m E/G# A
Face it, no one needs to go away
A E D A
Hold it, there's poison in the words they say
A E D A
Let it sink in, I am not the living end
A E D A
Open the door, pull up a chair, make friends

D E A
They twist the truth and crush the poor
F#m D E
They study war forevermore
